I James Spears of Buckingham County and State of Virginia do hereby constitute and make this my last will and testament in the manner and form as followeth: That is to say after all my just debts are paid. I give my daughter Polly Spiller three hundred and fifty acres of land lying in the County of Buckingham, Two hundred acres a part thereof, is lying on the waters of David Creek, and was granted to James Pendley by patent bearing date on the 20 day of September 1745 and joining the lines of the said Polly Spiller (the land which I have heretofore conveyed to her by a deed in fee simple) the lines of David Kyle and others, and lying on the North side of Spears Mountain, and One hundred and fifty acres thereof was granted to John Spears by patent bearing date on the 27th day of June 1764, and lies on the top, and on the east side of said Spears Mountain, and joining the lines of said David Kyle & others, also I give to my daughter Polly Spiller twenty five negroes & all their increase that is to say. Hannah and her child Celia; ~~XXXX~~ Patty & her children Lucy, Joe and Ursula, Alley and her child Mary, Joe (called Joe Burton) Joe (called big Joe) and his wife Lucy, and their children Edmund, and Amanda, George Daniel Peter Nelson, Sondon, and his wife Sally and their children, Washington Sophia, Martha, Eliza, Sarah, and Cornwallis, to her the said Polly Spiller her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever— Secondly— I give to George