Middlesex County Court September 1824

James Jackson natural Guardian of his infant Child Dorothy, and Elizabeth Daniel who is also a daughter of Sd. Jas. Jackson Complts against Nancy Kellum widow of Abel Kellum decd. . . . Deft — In Chancery

This day came the Complt by his attorney, and filed his bill to restrain the said Deft, from making waste of the estate of said defendants husband of whom she was left executrix. The Court on Consideration of the Complts bill do decree and order that the Deft, be restrained from making any use, or waste of the said testators estate and that she be summoned to appear at the next Court to say whether or not will qualify on said estate & to abide such order as the Court in this part may consider

A Copy Teste Geo Healy Cl —