141-048, Office of the Attorney General, Agency-wide schedule

Glenn Smith presented this schedule. Smith explained there were two changes made to the schedule. The agency added one new series for Tobacco Enforcement. The records document the master settlement agreement enforcement and compliance activities and will be retained 15 years. The Criminal Litigation Case Files had been a permanent series. This revision is proposing that the series become a non-permanent series kept for 75 years due to space limitations of the new offices where the agency has moved. Currently, Infolinx does not allow for the transfer of records to the State Records Center and then to Archives. Infolinx and transfer protocols will be need to be updated in order to accomate a the storage of a permanent record in the SRC before it is transferred to the Archives. John Metz asked for a timeframe on the administrative change. Smith explained this will be worked on in the next few months, first presenting to pre-ROC and ROC with implementation to follow.

[Motion: John Metz called for a motion to approve the schedule 141-048 as amended. Corey Smith made the motion; Chad Owen seconded the motion. All voting members present approved.]

182-060, Virginia Employment Commission, Finance

Corey Smith presented this schedule. He explained this is an existing schedule that was in a format from the 1970s or 1980s that did not have six-digit series numbers. The series descriptions were updated and series numbers were added. Many existing series were superseded by general schedule series and the only remaining series is the Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund Records.

182-161, Virginia Employment Commission, Field Operations and 182-162 Virginia Employment Commission, Workforce

Corey Smith presented these schedules. Smith explained two series approved at the last meeting for Schedule 182-161 should be on schedule 182-162. Schedule 182-161 will be defunct once the two Work Opportunity Tax Credit Certifications: Approved (000560) and Denials (200510) are moved to 181-162.
