

FIRST FRIDAYS east

SPRING FEATURE OF FIRST FRIDAYS ART WALK

Richmond's popular arts and cultural program First Fridays Art Walk makes a special expansion east this spring to connect with the Library of Virginia, Richmond CenterStage, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and University of Richmond Downtown.

On March 5, April 2, and May 7, 2010, from 5 to 8 PM, the "First Fridays East" locations will offer refreshments, live music, and diverse exhibitions. All free and open to the public. Click on venue links for locations and more info.

Free underground parking is available at the Library of Virginia from 5 to 8 PM and in the St. Paul's Episcopal Church garage after 5 PM (no closing time).

May 7, 2010

FIRST FRIDAYS east EVENTS

Library of Virginia | 5–8 PM

- Songs of the People: A Celebration of Traditional Music— In celebration of the Library of Virginia's exhibition The Land We Live In, The Land We Left: Virginia's People, Mary Smith and Gregg Kimball will take you on a musical journey through America's traditional music landscape, from ballads to blues.
- Demonstrations by local area artists in the main lobby.
- The Land We Live In, The Land We Left: Virginia's People explores the lives of immigrants from a variety of homelands who settled in every part of the state (Exhibition Gallery & Lobby)
- Light refreshments.

www.lva.virginia.gov

or call 804.692.3524 for more information

St. Paul's Episcopal Church | Parish Hall | 5–8 PM

- Opening Reception: Group Exhibition by the Virginia Art Educators Association.
- 7 PM: Fox Elementary Children's Choir performs.
- Church open for tours, featuring 25 stained-glass windows, ten from the studios of Louis C. Tiffany.

www.stpauls-episcopal.org/firstfridays

University of Richmond Downtown | 5–8 PM

- Artwork inspired by Surface Tension: Pattern, Texture and Rhythm (organized by University of Richmond Museums).
- Live music by Doctors of Jazz, a jazz/Dixieland band composed of University of Richmond professors that specializes in the early jazz music of New Orleans.
- Light refreshments.

<http://downtown.richmond.edu/events/firstfridays.html>

Rhythm Hall at Richmond CenterStage | 5–8 PM

- Free outdoor* entertainment in celebration of Cinco de Mayo on the Broad Street side of Richmond CenterStage!
- Richmond CenterStage presents an evening of music and dance performances with festive food and drink.
- Artwork by Hanover County public school students in the Showcase Gallery at the corner of 7th and Grace Streets.

*Rain plan is to move entertainment inside to Rhythm Hall.