Letter, 14 October 1838, from Nancy Hobson Brown (1788–1880), and her daughter Elizabeth Agnes Brown (1822–1888), at “Somerset” in Powhatan County, Virginia, to Edward Smith Brown (1818–1908), while he was attending Randolph-Macon College in Boydton. Subjects include the concern over his health, Methodist church meetings, visitors, letters received by the family, and courtship and marriages of family and friends. Purchased. (43959)

Butterworth, Ivan. 1 reel of microfilm. (Misc. reel 5405)

Scrapbooks, 1922–1964, of Ivan Butterworth (1904–1984) of Dinwiddie County, Virginia. There are three volumes documenting his activities as a student, teacher, and principal at Dinwiddie High School. They contain newspaper clippings, photographs, correspondence, greeting cards, and other ephemera. There is a great deal of information concerning Randolph-Macon College and Dinwiddie High School sports and academics, including photographs of students, faculty, classes, and teams. Many of the clippings are summaries and scores of sports events. There are also photographs of historic sites around Virginia and the nation, and also information concerning the activities of the Dinwiddie County Civil War Centennial Committee. For preservation purposes, the scrapbooks were disassembled and microfilmed. Purchased. (42653)

Dade, Albert Gallatin. .1 cubic feet.

Papers, 1857–1860, of Albert G. Dade (b. 1815) of Westmoreland County, Virginia, including accounts, letters, and receipts. The majority of the collection consists of letters from his son, Henry Fitzhugh Dade (ca. 1837–1907) and daughter, Ann W. Bramham (b. ca. 1835), and his niece, Elizabeth Pratt Dade (ca. 1841–1932). Topics covered include business matters, health, family news, farm life, and local events in Albemarle County and Charlottesville, Virginia. This accession has been interfiled with Accession 37099. Purchased. (41309)

Dalton, Winston. 1 volume (22 pages).

Register, ca. 1821–1847, of Winston Dalton (ca. 1777–1844), recording births, marriages, deaths, and daily life and events in Halifax and Pittsylvania Counties, Virginia. The register also includes accounts, herbal remedies and cures, poetry, and weather notations. Copies of the births, marriages, and deaths listed will be available online under Dalton family Bible (Acc. 44043b). Included are over one hundred family names from Halifax and Pittsylvania Counties. Gift of Robert Whitehead, Richmond. (44043a)

Estill, Samuel. 1 leaf, photocopy.
