For Immediate Release

Author Jan Karon will speak at the Library of Virginia at noon on November 12 about her new book, In the Company of Others: A Father Tim Novel, as part of her nationwide book tour. Karon is the author of “The Mitford Years” and the “Father Tim” series of books. The event is Karon’s only scheduled stop in Virginia.

Space is limited for the talk and seating is on a first-come, first served basis. The talk is free but tickets will be distributed on the morning of the event. You will be seated according to your ticket group. Overflow seating is provided in our conference rooms, with a direct video link. Please note: There will be signed copies of the author’s new book available for purchase at this event, but the author will not sign books. A limited number of autographed copies are available from the Virginia Shop. To pre-order your copy of In the Company of Others or Jan Karon's Mitford Cookbook and Kitchen Reader, visit the shop's site at www.thevirginiashop.org

There is limited, free parking for this event in the Library’s underground deck, which is accessible from either Eighth or Ninth streets. Positive Vibe Express will be open before and after Karon’s talk offering a wide array sandwiches, salads, and sweets.
