SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

PICTURE COLLECTION

Hanging Files. World War, 1914–1918 – France.

With the Americans in the Argonne . . . "Old Virginia Never Tires"

Hanging Files. World War, 1914–1918 – Paris Peace Conference.

Most items in this file show President Woodrow Wilson either at the conference or enroute.

Hanging Files. World War, 1914–1918 – Virginia.

This file contains approximately 60 items, the majority of which are group photographs of personnel in Virginia military units such as the 111th Field Artillery, the 116th Infantry, the 183rd Infantry, the Coast Artillery Corps (1st, 409th and 410th Companies), Ambulance Co. #110, and Base Hospital No. 45. Most of these items were originally in the possession of the Adjutant General's Office and appear to be from 1922–1925. Nevertheless, they are included here, as it is reasonable to assume that many of the soldiers pictured had participated in the war.

Mann, Harry C. Mann Collection. Collection (30 boxes) of glass plate negatives of Harry C. Mann, commercial photographer, Norfolk, Va., 1906–1926. Prints have been made from negatives and cataloged according to subject. The majority of prints were on the Norfolk area. These have been filed in a separate file marked "Mann Collection". The other items have been filed in the regular collection. (Cl:8)

The photographs in this collection will be included in The Library of Virginia's digital collection.

The McGuire Unit. U.S. Army Base Hospital No. 45. Approximately 172 negatives, black and white, sizes vary. Collection donated by the estate of Dr. Thomas Fletcher. Cl:45
