

LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA

STATE RECORDS ARCHIVIST

Position #00231 & 00232 (Full-Time), Pay Band 04

Library Specialist II; 29052

Salary Range $42,000 to $50,000 (commensurate with experience)

Open to the General Public

The Library of Virginia, the state library and archives of the commonwealth, is seeking two qualified archivists to work in the State Records Branch of the Government Records Services Division. The division consists of three departments: the State Records and Local Records archival programs, and Records Management Services. The selected candidate will work both independently and as part of team that advances the proper disposition, care, management and public access to the archival records of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Library's state government archival collections date from the early colonial period to modern government, including most notably the records of every Virginia governor from Patrick Henry to Terry McAuliffe.

The two positions will be part of a team responsible for applying the highest professional standards and archival best practices to identify, analyze, arrange, and describe the permanent records of Virginia state government to ensure their long-term preservation and facilitate their use by the public. Under the direction and guidance of the State Records Manager, the incumbents will work with both early and modern collections, focusing on the backlog of paper-based state archival records, digital collections of state archival records, and the vast quantities of electronic archival records accessioned since 2005.

Responsibilities include:

- Identifying the content, arrangement, research potential, extent, and date range of paper and electronic state records collections and conducting necessary research to identify persons, places, events, and agencies documented in the records;
- Creating EAD, MARC and other finding-aids that facilitates public understanding and access to the records;
- Performing routine evaluation and conservation (repair/mending) of paper archival collections;
- Working with colleagues to evaluate best processing practices/options and assist in developing and implementing archival processing procedures for electronic records;
- Building archival collections of state government Web sites using Archive-It (<https://archive-it.org/>); and
- Contributing to agency outreach efforts, including speaking to stakeholder groups and at professional conferences and meetings, as well as providing content for the Library's social media outlets and blog, the UncommonWealth (<https://uncommonwealth.virginiamemory.com/>).

The Library of Virginia is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to hiring a diverse and inclusive workforce that is reflective of the Commonwealth of Virginia. To be successful in this position, in addition to the qualifications listed, you will need to value working for an agency that fosters a diverse, open, inclusive, team-oriented work environment. All qualified applicants are afforded equal opportunities without regard to race, sex, color, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, veteran status, political affiliation, genetics, or disability (except where physical requirements are a bona fide occupational qualification). Minorities, individuals with disabilities, veterans, and people with National Service experience are encouraged to apply.

BENEFITS

The Library of Virginia offers a strong benefits package complete with 12 paid holidays, annual leave, family and personal leave, paid sick leave, parental leave, short- and long-term disability, retirement, deferred compensation, flexible work schedule, and much more.

Qualified state employees may be eligible for student loan forgiveness through the Federal Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program (PSLF). As a full-time employee with the Library of Virginia, you may be able to take advantage of this program!
