

Hippodrome Theater in Richmond's Jackson Ward, 1910s

Richmond Planet, March 27, 1915

The Leading Weekly
Journal in the State.

Medium Which Reaches
Every Colored Home.

VOLUME XXXII, NO. 18

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1915

PRICE, FIVE CENTS

THAT ANTI- SEGREGATION MEETING

Largely Attended Meeting
at Hippodrome Theatre.

TO FIGHT SEGREGATION

The anti-segregation meeting held last Sunday afternoon at the Hippodrome Theatre was a success. The attorneys made eloquent addresses stating plainly their bases of contention and their hope for success. Attorney Alfred E. Cohen is senior counsel in the case and Attorney J. R. Pollard is associated with him. The case has been argued in the Supreme Court and they have great hopes of a successful conclusion of the issues raised. The following report has been furnished by Treasurer George W. Bragg of the firm of Bragg Bros.

Richmond, Va., March 22, 1915
Proceeds for Attorneys' Fees from Meeting Held in the Interest of Segregation.

Segregation.
Sunday, March 21, 1915, at the Hippodrome Theatre.

Amount donated at the meeting.
$21.69.

Settled for the amounts mentioned.

P. J. Williams, 626 N. 4th St. $2

Frank Monroe, 5 E. Orange St. $5.

J. T. Carter, 515 St. James St.
$5.00.

H. C. Thompson, 1029 St. John
St., $1.00.

H. J. Faulk, 307 East Leigh St.,
$1.00.

W. H. Jackson, 805 North 5th
St., $10.00.

D. R. Dawson, 205 E. Clay St. $2.

M. E. Callahan, 730 North 5th St.
$3.00.

S. Johnson, 202 W. Federal St.
$5.00.

J. W. Rutledge, 526 N. Second
St., ?

James Cox, 814 Louisiana St.,
Fulton, $3.00.

J. O. Lewis, 1111 N. 5th St. $2.

Wise Ellis, 75c.

Anna R. Cooper, M. D., 811 State
St., Fulton, $5.00.

P. J. Henry, 1106 W. Leigh St.,
75c, paid.

Persons who desire to contribute can send the money to George W.
Bragg, Treasurer, 506 N. Second St.
Richmond, Va. They can call him up and he will wait on them. Every one would do well to aid this worthy cause.

Hippodrome Theater in Richmond's Jackson Ward, 1910s

Richmond Planet, March 27, 1915, Transcription

That Anti-Segregation Meeting

Largely Attended Meeting at Hippodrome Theatre.

To Fight Segregation

The anti-segregation meeting hold last Sunday afternoon at the Hippodrome Theatre was a success. The attorneys made eloquent addresses stating plainly their bases of contention and their hope for success. Attorney Alfred E. Cohen is senior counsel in the case and Attorney J. K. Pollard is associated with him. The case has been argued in the Supreme Court and they have great hopes of a successful conclusion of the issues raised. The following report has been furnished by Treasurer George W. Bragg of the firm of Bragg Bros.

Richmond, Va., March 22, 1915

Proceeds for Attorneys' Fund from Meeting Held in the Interest of Segregation.

Sunday, March 21, 1915, at the Hippodrome Theatre.

Amount donated at the meeting, $21.69.

P. J. Williams, 626 N. 4th St., $2

Frank Monroe, 5 E. Orange St. $5

J. T. Carter, 516 St. James St., $5.00

H.C. Thompson, 1029 St. John St., $1.00

H. J. Faulk, 307 East Leigh St., $1.00

W. H. Jackson, 805 North 5th St., $10.00

D. R. Dawson, 205 E. Clay St., $2.00

M. E. Callahan, 730 North 5th St. $3.00

S. Johnson, 202 W. Federal St. $5.00

J. W. Rutledge, 526 N. Second St. ?

James Cox, 814 Louisiana St., Fulton, $3.00

J. O. Lewis, 1111 N. 5th St. $2.

Wise Ellis, 75c

Anna R. Cooper, M.D., 811 State St., Fulton, $5.00

P. J. Henry, 1106 W. Leigh St., 75c, paid.

Persons who desire to contribute can send the money to George W. Bragg, Treasurer, 506 N. Second St. Richmond, Va. They can call him up and he will wait on them. Every one would do well to aid this worthy cause.

Citation: "That Anti-Segregation Meeting," Richmond Planet, March 27, 1915, Library of Virginia.