For Immediate Release

John S. DiYorio, of Wytheville, Virginia, has been elected chair of the Library Board. DiYorio, who was appointed to the Board in 2003 by Governor Mark Warner, received his bachelor's degree in chemistry from the College of Charleston and his doctorate degree in physical chemistry from the University of South Carolina. He served as professor of chemistry at Wytheville Community College from 1969 to 2002. He currently serves as adjunct professor of chemistry at Wytheville Community College.

From 1988 to 1994 DiYorio was a member of the Virginia Coal and Energy Commission. He served on the Wythe-Grayson Library Board from 1988 to 1994, filling two terms as chair of the Board.

Ronald S. Kozlowski, of Richmond, Virginia, was elected vice chair of the Library Board. A retired librarian, he served as interim director of the Richmond Public Library System and headed several other libraries including the Miami-Dade Public Library, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg County Library, the Louisville Free Public Library, and the Anne Arundel County Public Library.

Library Board members are appointed by the governor and serve five-year terms. They are eligible for reappointment.
