The Library of Virginia Building Closed January 18–21, 2021

Due to the enhanced security protocols in place in and around Capitol Square in downtown Richmond, the Library of Virginia building will be closed Monday, January 18, through Thursday, January 21, 2021. (The Library was already scheduled to be closed on January 18 for the Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday). The building is scheduled to reopen on Friday, January 22.

During January 19–21, teleworking staff members will be available to respond to your questions and research inquiries by email. For Library Reference assistance, email refdesk@lva.virginia.gov. For Archives Reference assistance, email archdesk@lva.virginia.gov.

Research appointments scheduled for these days have been rescheduled. For more information about appointments, email archdesk@lva.virginia.gov.
