(Richmond, Virginia) – Kenyatta D. Berry, co-host of the popular PBS series Genealogy Roadshow, will appear at the Library of Virginia to discuss genealogy, family history, and her new book, The Family Tree Toolkit. The book is designed to help genealogists navigate the sometimes overwhelming, sometimes treacherous, and sometimes exhilarating waters of finding ancestors. Topics include how and where to begin, what records are available online and in repositories, what to do once you find the information, how to share your story, and—of course—DNA discoveries. Berry is a professional genealogist, lecturer, writer, and attorney whose career spans 20 years of data collection, in-depth genealogical research, and historical content in the discipline of genealogy. Berry will take part in a conversation led by Viola Baskerville, a Virginia lawyer who served in the Virginia House of Delegates and as Secretary of Administration for Governor Tim Kaine. A book signing will follow the talk. For more information, contact Ashley Ramey at ashley.ramey@lva.virginia.gov or 804.692.3001.
